

Amerasia Journal

Volume 35, Number 2 2009

Subjugated to Subject: Through Class, Race, and Sex

Contents

To Our Readers

Subjugated to Subject: Through Class, Race, and Sex

RUSSELL C. LEONG

vii

i. ways of knowing

On Contradiction:

Theory and Transformation in Detroit's Asian Political Alliance

MAY C. FU

1

Flying in the Face of Race, Gender, Class and Age:

A Story About Kazu Iijima, One of the Mothers of the Asian American Movement on the First Year Anniversary of Her Death

KAREN L. ISHIZUKA

24

Ways of Knowing, Feeling, Being, and Doing:

Toward an Asian American and Pacific Islander Feminist Epistemology

JENNIFER A. YEE

49

The Death of Eugenia Baja: Femicide and Transnational Feminist Organizing among Filipina Migrant Workers

STEPHANIE D. SANTOS

65

ii. unmastering histories

History, Epistemology, and Commitment:

An Interview with Ronald Takaki

TE-HSING SHAN

78

Migration Trajectories

VALERIE J. MATSUMOTO

113

"Too Close and Too Far": Indo-Fijians in America

FARIS ALIKHAN

114

From Indonesian-Dutch to Indonesian-Dutch-American: Irene's Journey to "The Land of Opportunity"
BREANN SCHRAM	129
Family Migration: Lucas and Virgilio Basbas
LINDSEY BASBAS	137
iii. nations of identity
Forwarding Memory through Diaporama: The Passing-on of Việt Kiều Nostalgia
ERIN KHUÊ NINH	146
Gender and Memory in the Pacific: Contemporary Hawaiian Nationalism and the Memorialization of Plantation Workers at the Japanese Cultural Center of Hawai'i
CARI COSTANZO KAPUR	168
"We Have Created Our Own Meaning for Hapa Identity:" The Mobilization of Self-Proclaimed Hapas within Institutions of Higher Education
PATRICIA E. LITERTE	191
iv. passages
Passages: Amerasia Journal Salutes Him Mark Lai, Ron Takaki, and Al Robles
RUSSELL C. LEONG AND DON T. NAKANISHI	217
Richard Aoki (1938-2008): Toughest Oriental to Come Out of West Oakland
HARVEY DONG	223
Komrad Richard
MO NISHIDA	233